Smorgon Family Building,
Thomas Ganz Senior Living & Community Precinct

Feel at home, with the care and independence to continue to enjoy what you love.

Residential Home Carnegie is built around our unique Hand-in-Hand™ model of support to ensure you truly feel at home from the minute you step inside. This luxurious home accommodates 120 elders across two levels in eight residential houses. Each house is home to 15 elders and mimics a family environment, with households connected around comfortable living spaces, small 'family' groups form naturally to make it feel just like home.

Dedicated and trained staff are always available to provide care, support, and encouragement. That means you can experience greater independence over your daily life and routines, receive personalised care, and connect with your community.

A contemporary standard of living to meet your unique needs and preferences.

Residential Home Carnegie delivers a new standard of living that exemplifies Jewish Care's philosophy of enriching lives. We invite you and your family to experience and enjoy everything it has to offer.

Three different room types provide you ultimate choice of lifestyle. Enjoy quality and contemporary comforts in the Traditional and Classic rooms. Enjoy added luxury with a separate living area in our Choice rooms.

All of our rooms include:

- En suite
- Flat screen television
- Foxtel
- Wireless internet
- Access to courtyard and/or balcony
- Refrigerator
- Personal Safe

Whichever accommodation you choose, you can expect to receive the highest standard of service from us.
